

Cliquez sur les liens hypertexts:

- Une video de 25 minutes à visionner : AC et TS
- Une video de 4 minutes à visioner : l'enfant qui dompta le vent
- Petits texte à lire Cvosta Rica et Philippines

The Boy Who Harnessed The Wind

Question : Comment l'histoire pourrait se poursuivre ?

Bonus

L'approche communautaire en travail social sous l'angle professionnel, social et politique

SOCIAL WORK IN THE TYPHOON AFFECTED AREAS OF THE PHILIPPINES: A CALL TO THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIAL WORK COMMUNITY

Information Type: News, Website/Useful Link

Topic: Disaster, Social Work

January 26, 2014

Tacloban

Hosted by the Philippines Association of Social Workers, the Secretary-General of The International Federation of Social Workers (IFSW), Dr. Rory Truell, visited the areas affected by Typhoon Yolanda last November. This is his account of his visit to one of the devastated/affected communities – Tacloban:

<https://www.ifsw.org/social-work-in-the-typhoon-affected-areas-of-the-philippines-a-call-to-the-international-social-work-community/>

Social work is booming worldwide – because it's proven to work

Investing in social services has a positive impact on societies. In Costa Rica, government and local communities have come together to effect change

Costa Rica's model encourages all people to be involved with shaping their social services. Photograph: Yuri Cortez/AFP/Getty Images

<https://www.theguardian.com/society/2018/jul/02/social-work-booming-worldwide-costa-rica>